SETTINGS AND SITUATIONS IN MOVING IMAGES

Course 22.7. - 2.8.2019

Venue: Media workshop of riesa efau

When the grand narratives of our time equal narrations of crisis and catastrophes, when we are always exposed to the same dramaturgy swaying between hysteria and paranoia – what is that doing to us? Not only for that the making of film and video increasingly faces challenges in determinate habits of viewing and differing conceptions of beliefs. In a first step we will examine film examples to raise your awareness for underlying mechanisms. Then in our own work we want to play with images and language, with scenes and settings, with fragments and sequences to develop an individual narration that is absolutely surprising and unique without being sensational.
